Nutrition Outreach and Education Program

Please call the phone number at the bottom to set up a free, private, and short conversation to estimate benefits you may be eligible for every month through the Food Stamp Program.

Should you or someone you know apply for Food Stamp Benefits?

There are two different ways for people who are aged 60+ or disabled to be eligible for monthly benefits.

If...

... your monthly income (what you get each month from Social Security, pension, SSI, Veteran's benefits, salary, etc.) is less than the amount in the chart, call us for a short interview to estimate the benefits you may eligible for. It's that simple.

Household Size	1	2	3	4	Each Additional
Monthly Gross Income	$1,805	$2,428	$3,052	$3,675	$623/person

Or...

... if your overall monthly income is more than the amount above, you still may be eligible; but there are more rules that apply in your case. For example, you must have less than $3,000 in cash, savings, stocks and bonds. Also, your income must be below federal income guidelines after taking certain deductions, such as shelter and medical costs.

Please call the NOEP Coordinator to help determine if you may be eligible.
